

Summer of Love

According to the oracle, we are entering the Summer of Love. Some attribute this special time to the Mayan calendar. Others claim that we have slipped into the long-heralded Age of Aquarius. All we know is that we are seeing more harmonious couples and adventurous singles on Ibiza than ever before. Xochitl Hernandez and Stefan Wild have joined the ranks of the power couples that are gracing Ibiza with their magnetic love. If you get within a hundred meters of them, your heart will burst open with the sweetness of their connection. Be careful—this kind of love appears highly contagious.

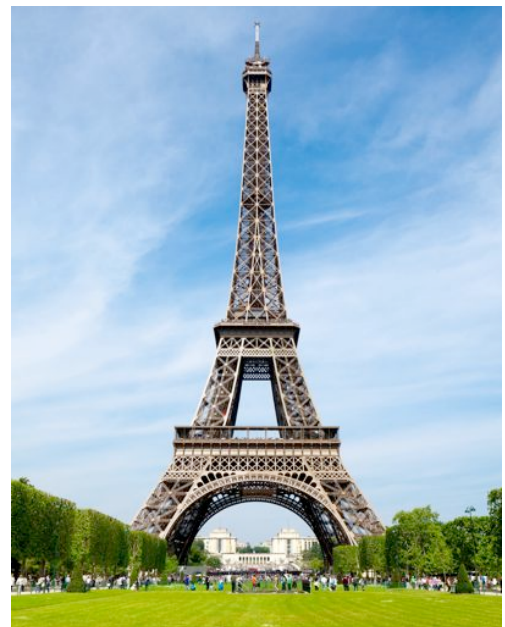

How To Talk to Men in the City of Love

Mia Sage completed her mission in Hamburg last week, and now she is preparing for her next jaunt—to Paris. You don't have to speak French to Talk to Men in their own language. You only have to discover the receptive, feminine quality in you that makes you so attractive to the opposite sex.

The time of your life is now. Why not fulfill your wanderlust and your love of men by meeting up in this romantic city. We invite you to join us for shopping, sightseeing, and for the most exciting workshop ever conducted.

The unlived life is a tragedy. Here is your chance to get a fresh view of men, of you, and of this precious life you have been given.

The more you tune in to the Sage University super magnet, the more attraction you will enjoy in your life. If partnership with men matters to you we can show you how to find your man, how to love your man, and how to build the powerful, lifelong devotion that will fulfill your fondest dreams.

The Monday Night Class

We started our Monday Night Class in 1978. Then clients paid only $10 for excellent training. Now you can attend the Monday Night Class via SKYPE in cities throughout the US and the EU. The quality of the class has gone way up. But the price is still $10 (10€ in Europe).

If you are fairly well organized, you can earn up to half of that tuition by sponsoring your own local Monday Night Group anywhere in the world.

These classes are more exciting than football games, television shows, or any other traditional Monday activities you can find. Along with the pleasure of gathering with coaches, entrepreneurs, and adventurers, you learn the people skills you need to make life better in every way.

WHAT'S NEW

Mia Sage is in the process of confirming the summer calendar. She is contemplating some changes in her tour and the Ibiza schedule. If you are thinking of attending any events on the current calendar, please let her know right away. New York is filling up fast, as are the Honolulu events. The sooner you let us know your desire the better we can make sure that we can provide the training and the adventure you are looking for. Every event with Sage University opens your senses and transports you to a deeper dimension of living. Make contact today.

Greeting from Mia Sage

They say that Sagittarius people love to travel. In my case that is certainly true. Part of the joy of coaching comes from the fact that I am actually required to travel to exciting new destinations every month. I love every moment of planning, packing, and making each and every journey.

Along with the excitement of new places is the pleasure of meeting all kinds of warm, wonderful people that share my desire to live life to the fullest. I truly love the process of profound conversation and interviews. Discovering what people really want to do and how they want to live opens my heart and mind every time.

I also love that our system is designed so that each person designs his or her own life. My career is exactly suited to my nature. I earn my living by doing exactly what I want, when I want, with whom I want. I set the hours, I make the calendar, and I write the rules for my own game.

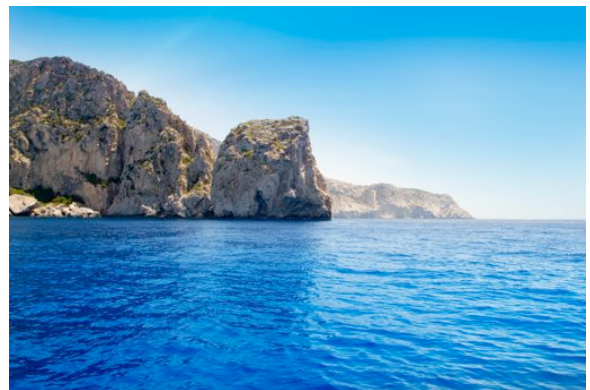

If personal and professional freedom matters to you like they do to me, I invite you to join me to explore your options.

We want to extend our admiration to Tilly Tiger and her amazing team in Hamburg—Pia von den Hoff, Martina Klitzke, and Marion Berno. They really stepped up to the challenge of producing a high quality professional training for Sage University.

We also want to acknowledge Claudia Stoll for surviving cancer, radiation, chemo, and months of horrific recovery before arriving on Ibiza to take leadership of the Trainer Training—one of our most intensive and demanding events.

Vinnie Monaco has taken on her healing by giving her the care she needs to recover her strength.

Coaching from the Heart

(June 29-July 1—Skype attendance available)

You can learn the tools of professional coaching in one inexpensive weekend. Learning-by-doing is the most effective, fun way to learn coaching skills. There are plenty of courses that teach outmoded programming skills and techniques that dwell on your past. Real coaching is more than self-improvement. Coaches inspire. Overcoming limitations is good, but it doesn't release your passion and potential like coaching from your heart.

The Coaching from the Heart seminar goes beyond academic learning and problem solving. You will find yourself coaching your classmates so quickly and naturally that your worried mind won't have a chance to interfere with your natural abilities. If you want to earn your living as a coach, this course will show you how. Or you can use these communication tools to be a better parent, teacher, or friend.

Coaching School

(July 2-7—Skype attendance available)

If you are ready to take your coaching skills to the next level, this is the course for you. Professional coaching brings out the best in people. Every time you coach another person to high performance, you glow with aliveness. Too many coaches fall back on advice, suggestion, programming and criticism. But effective coaching is pure fun.

Sage University's 6-Day Coaching School shows you how to use the Coaching Transformers to profoundly alter the deepest vibrations of human perception. You don't have to change people's minds, or teach them anything in order to motivate them. You just have to inspire them with your own enthusiasm. We can make you a master in the art of coaching. This remarkable new communication technology gives you effective coaching tools that add power to your existing approach.

Not only will Regina's wit and wisdom transform your relationships—she will also inspire you to see that you can also write a wonderful book. On Writing Well is a delightful 4-day seminar to practice the fundamentals of good writing.
