

Year of the Dragon

This year of the Dragon has been the most spectacular ever. We have expanded Miamar Productions throughout the US and the EU, and assembled an amazing team of high-intensity players. While the banking economy has stumbled, our network of entrepreneurs has taken grand leaps of faith that have carried us to new heights.

There is a wise saying, that the best time to start a new business is when the economy is down. We started in 2008 at the beginning of the global crash. Sure enough, these tough times forced us to push our roots deep into the soil of the new service economy. Our growth was not easy. But it is our deep pleasure to grow our ventures together. Thanks for playing.

The Corporation

We were astonished by how many people contacted us to learn about the new How to Talk Corporation. Until now we have specialized in training free agents. Now we are inviting team players to participate with us. The many inquiries about owning a large global company together was gratifying, to say the least.

Imagine—a great international training organization owned mostly by businesswomen that care as much about sharing our message as about earning profits. Women have come a long way in the last 100 years. We are ready to take the next big step.

Together we are on the threshold of a dream—genuine equality with men in business, and harmony with men in the home. Women today are the pioneers of a new social movement based on productive play between men and women. Our How to Talk organization represents the leading edge of a new business reality based on mutual respect.

Do you find your career inspiring? Does the word adventure describe the life you are living? Are you ready to make the leap into the life that warms your heart?

A fulfilling career is more than a job. A meaningful life serves a higher purpose. At Miamar we have taken the challenge to change the world of relationship. We invite you to join us by practicing harmony with men.

Mia's new book shows the way. But this is more than a book. Mia is creating a social movement to create greater equality and harmony between men and women.

The book is simple, yet profound. You will be entertained and enlightened by her approach. The first edition will be a collector's item. Call Xochitl on Ibiza to reserve your copy.

Greetings from Mia Sage

I am very grateful to have a business that grows, even in this economy. It only shows that persistence is more important than talent. Here on Ibiza we are so busy that we haven't done laundry in weeks. I don't even have time to hang the shower curtain that fell down a few days ago.

Our focus is fierce and our pace is blistering. The closer we get to the launch of the new How to Talk system, the faster things are moving. But inside the game we are tumbling around in slow motion like the passengers in a train wreck. Time seems to expand so we can handle the most important details. Amazingly we are on schedule, to the month, to the day, and to the hour.

I am not doing this. WE are all doing this together. This must be what it is like to play on a great sports team. I feel very fortunate to be a part of something bigger with you.

Dana Minney and Mandy Cavanaugh are creating the most exciting GWEN ever in Austin, beginning November 1st. Our esteemed President, Mei Hillhouse is bringing the force of Chi to that event, so you can be sure it will be uplifting.

How to Talk to Men in Business (November 1-4)

The business world fails to offer women an equal playing field. Women also refuse to play fair in the business world. Few women are willing to adopt the attitude necessary for team play. Both sexes feel misunderstood. Virtually all attempts to even the score through diversity training have ended in frustration.

How to Talk to Men in Business provides clear distinctions and high intensity role-play scenarios to introduce women to the masculine culture and the insider business talk that men use to get things done.

If you are the kind of woman that intends to earn well in business, this is the training you need. We are offering this pilot course one time only at a 50% price reduction. See you on Ibiza.

Millionaire 10-Day October 22-31

Having plenty of money can bring you great freedom, provided you don't use all your time making it. Most people are working too hard to get rich. It is common to spend one's life making great effort due to limited understanding of how the money game works.

Real success is a pleasure cruise. It requires a mentor that knows the ropes to give you the guidance you need to keep it light. The Millionaire 10-Day brings you into contact with the principles and practices that truly successful people employ to get amazing results. If you are ready to really listen, join us for this exciting event.

GWEN Austin, Texas (Nov 1-4)

Women face special challenges in the game of business. Achieving success requires instruction and inspiration from businesswomen that have already achieved great success. It is one thing to hear men talking about how they made it. It is another thing entirely to rub shoulders with highly successful women entrepreneurs who can make you feel the confidence that you can do it too. You learn the game of business through osmosis—by soaking in the energy and intelligence of other competent women that have gone before you. Mandy Cavanaugh and Dana Minney conduct this incredible gathering of women entrepreneurs in the most wonderful city on Earth.

How to Talk to Men in Bed

Pilot (Nov 05-08)

Women marry men hoping that they will change. Men marry women hoping that they will stay the same. Both are disappointed. Few women know how to keep the magnetism alive. When sex breaks down, relationships break up. Few men know how to please a woman sexually. Neither gender knows how to ask for what they need. When it comes to intimate desires, both men and women are lost in a fog of miscommunication. As passion dries up, men move on to greener pastures. Women feel hurt and betrayed. They cannot see the connection between the loss of sexual attraction and the loss of the man. How to Talk to Men in Bed uses role-play and humorous conversation to uncover the blocks to the flow of electricity between men and women. This is a pilot course, so you save 50% on tuition. Take this chance to open a new dimension of love and vitality with men.

The Art of Loving Protection

(Nov 09-11)

Every woman has been hurt by a modern male. Men use words to dominate and to establish lines of authority. In battle and in sports they cut to the chase to get things done. In relationship they cut to the heart, spewing harsh words that can leave a woman feeling small and worthless. The Art of Loving Protection is a three-day game of facing down male dominance. We learn new strategies by playing the attactics game. Your classmates attack you verbally using phrases that have injured them at home and at work. Each woman rehearses ways to deflect and defend against unconscious male brutality. By the end of this 3-day free-for-all you will discover your self-esteem and confidence. You will have the skills you need to turn the conversation in your favor and to win the respect of even the smartest, toughest men. This course will tune up your ability to lead, negotiate, sell, and converse with men in every arena of life. Never feel small again. Join us to learn how to win cooperation from the good men.

Geisha School--Hawaii

(Nov 15-18)

A few wise women know the secret to winning the trust and allegiance of powerful men. They tell stories that transform men into living legends. But many women have lost the femininity and wisdom to get what they need and to bring out the best in men. So they play adversarial roles that lead to isolation and poverty.

Mia Sage's Geisha School changes all that. She brings together women from many cultures to learn the art of genuine entertainment that transforms men into gentlemen. Geisha means entertainer. Here you master the art of inspiring others by amusing yourself. Your enjoyment is contagious. People find joy just from spending time with you. As you learn to release the habitual roles you play, you slip into your authentic happiness.

Light-hearted women naturally create an environment of nurturing trust. Men want to spend time with them and fulfill their desires. This sweet, intensive experience brings calm excitement to every aspect of your life. Women that attend this event live easier lives because they have the skills to bring men into great harmony with them. This discipline goes beyond acting and pretending. Through tough, honest feedback you will discover the deep vibrations you send to men. You will see how to transform your relationship to men by emanating the genuine humor and love they crave.

Geisha School takes place in Honolulu where the spirit of Aloha mixes with the spirit of Escada and Prada. Together we play, shop, and practice the art of loving conversation. Call to register so we can assist you with flights and accommodations.
