

Welcome to the Octagon

If you steadfastly pursue your dreams you will eventually bring them into reality. Mia Sage began her business career in 2004 and founded her company in 2008. Now she has assembled a first-rate team. Together they have acquired and refurbished the most gorgeous building in Santa Eulalia.

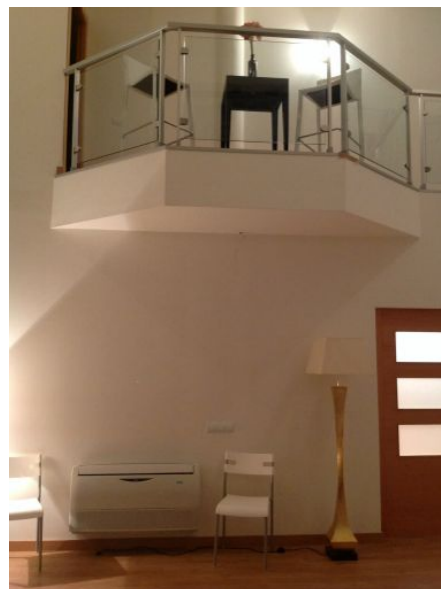

We want to remind you again that your business is a journey that will bring you to a series of exciting destinations. This one belongs to all of us. Our business web made this happen. Now you can continue your entrepreneurship and partnership training in elegant surrounding on the most beautiful island on Earth.

Once in a Lifetime

This new training center is good for all of us. Not only will you have an elegant place to improve your career—we also have the most exciting party room on the island of Ibiza. We are actively looking for project partners who want to conduct events together with us in 2014.

Along with collaboration, we need your help to cover the costs of moving into a new facility. Mia needs to raise enough money in the next few weeks to cover construction costs and to set up our new campus to provide training everywhere via the Internet. So we are offering special 12 month package prices that you can buy now that will reduce your tuition by as much as 40%.

You can also save 20% on any event, including Geisha School, Self-Actualization, and the graduate courses if you register and pay by October 10th. We have never made such an offer—ever, and we won't be able to do this again. But it is a special time for all of us to transform our image and to share in the good fortune of this event.

Live Your Dream

For women attending the GWEN conference November 1-5, we will be holding that event in the Palacio de Congreso--a world-class facility on the edge of Santa Eulalia. The five-star Hotel Aguas de Ibiza has generously offered to remain open a few extra days to accommodate those of you who want to make this event a full-on five-star preview of your future.

You can get a room at this gorgeous facility for only 110€ per night, and perhaps share it with a friend. Of course the Marsol, the Bahia, and your other favorite places also have plenty of room at off-season rates. Call Xochi if you require assistance.

Double or Nothing

You can double your income in 2014 with two specific tools—entrepreneurship and salesmanship. So we are offering 10 weekly Skype seminars on each of those topics beginning in mid November.

Monday evenings we will provide Starting from Scratch. You will learn the business fundamentals that enable you to initiate and complete delightful projects to create multiple income streams for your enterprise.

Later in the week you can tune into Sell Me If You Can, where you will be able to rehearse selling your products and services by practicing on our highly experienced team. Tuition for each series is 300€, or you can get both for 500€. Sign up early to save more.

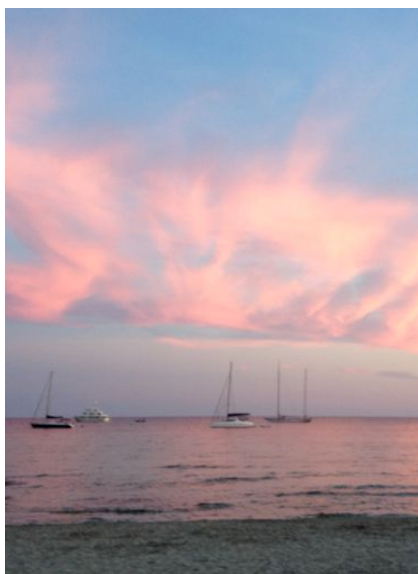

Greetings from Mia Sage

One year ago I tried to negotiate an elegant new training center for all of us. We had a free center and hotel in San Miguel. But I wanted very much to provide something beautiful in Santa Eulalia, something that would inspire all of us to reach higher.

Then in September, our dream suddenly manifested. Negotiations moved so swiftly that I could hardly believe my eyes. Now I want to thank all of you for your love and support—and for demanding the very finest facility available on the Mediterranean.

Together we are transforming into a competent business web. I credit “continuous learning” for our success, both as coaches and as entrepreneurs. I spend every day striving to reach my potential. Just like Ronaldo or Messi in football, I thrill to the possibility of reaching beyond what any business has ever done before.

We think of you constantly. We speak of your achievements with deep respect. It isn't easy for any of us to embrace our flaws and still reach for greatness in our lives. But that is what Miamar Productions and Sage University are all about. It is my privilege to live this exciting adventure with you.

The Human Factor

Martin Sage created Sage University in Hawaii in 1988, and then chartered it as a global entity in January 2000 to provide worldwide training for free agent entrepreneurs. He envisioned the university as an open source system, akin to Linux. The name belongs to all of us. We are proud of the thousands of coaches and trainers who provide services and assistance for entrepreneurs everywhere.

Many of our services are free. The tuition for most of our courses is low—just enough to support the production costs. Occasionally someone tries to control this open source venue. Don't be fooled by expensive imitations that deliver far less value for much greater costs.

If you need to verify whether a coach or trainer is a legitimate provider, feel free to call Xochi Wild.

Enchantment

(October 29 - 31)

People Reading

(November 5-10)

When you read a book you learn useful information in an entertaining format. But when you can read another person you enter directly into a vast world of love and mystery. You reach the intimacy and trust you desire.

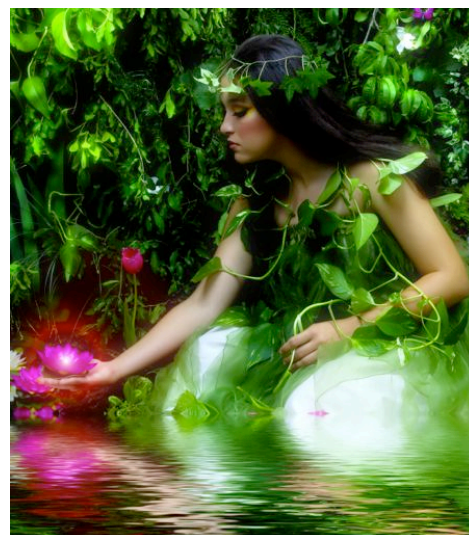

Most folks think they “know” another person, when in fact they are looking through a curtain of opinions, ideas, assumptions, hopes, and fears. Studies show that professional “people readers” are no more accurate than the average person. We show you much more.

This is our specialty. Along with body language, and vocal tones we demonstrate profound awareness of ‘micro’ expressions and reveal patterns of subtle vibes that let you see the genuine being behind the human face.

Every morning sunrise is a miracle. Every breath you take is a wonder. Yet most people miss the magic. They take life for granted. Blinded by mental images and habitual ideas, most people live in a picture of the world. Rarely do people feel the pulse of life all around them. Few people notice subtle patterns that reveal other realities.

Enchantment creates the conditions for a peak experience by opening the door to a magical realm. People who see subtle vibrations enjoy fuller lives. They enjoy the presence of divine love. Their faith is strong because they don’t require “proofs”. Rather, they enjoy the mysteries of life and sense the sweetness of the enchanted world in which we live.

Millionaire 10-Day

(December 1-10)

Only the most generous people should strive to become millionaires. It must be clear, even to the most clouded intelligence, that money can’t make anyone happy or fulfilled. The only reward for earning is in the joy of the game and the pleasure of sharing.

If personal wealth is your aim, this isn’t your training. But if you want to make a difference in our precious world, we would love to train you to run with the thoroughbreds and to win the prizes that make your name a legend and make your days worth living.

If you are content with pretense, carry on with your charade. But if you want to contribute, join us to see how.

GWEN

(November 01 - 05)

When women get together they speak intimately and try to make things easier for one another. The moment a man enters the conversation, the entire tone changes. In the presence of men women become more competitive. That is because the feminine nature is receptive. We are quick to take on male qualities that don't reflect our values or priorities.

Men commonly believe that women are highly competitive with one another and that they are unreliable in business. They don't realize that women reflect masculine qualities when men are present.

That is why women from many different cultures created the Global Women Entrepreneur Network as a series of annual conferences and local meet-up chapters so that they could assist each other to build careers suited to their feminine nature. Women need other women to help them earn the money they need to care for their families and to enjoy the financial freedom to travel and grow their web of women business associates.

We need your participation to create a woman-friendly business environment that spans the globe. You can help by attending GWEN, thereby making your own business projects more effective, and then by helping us coach other women.

By attending GWEN 2013 on Ibiza you are taking a very important step toward a better income for you and the people you love. You are also becoming an essential link in a level playing field in which women earn equally with men without compromising their female nature.

GWEN is more than a venue to share your services and products with women from all over the world. This is a conference that demonstrates business from the heart. While men storm the castle gates, we grow our businesses, just as we raise our children. Our way isn't quick or ruthless. We put people first. As we recover our nurturing qualities we put them together with good friends who return our kindness.

Women-owned service businesses are booming in the 21st Century. As traditional corporations fire millions of people, women entrepreneurs are hiring both men and women as contract workers. With global unemployment so high, there are plenty of talented young people who would appreciate the opportunity to work with you as project partners or interns.

Are women entrepreneurs becoming the new business leaders? Here are some interesting statistics: Three women start a new business for every man who does so. Three out of four business failures today are men. That means that women entrepreneurs outnumber men more than 6 to 1. Men might rule the corporate world. But with entrepreneurship, women are free to work on their own terms at their own pace.

Women need the freedom to grow their businesses as labors of love, so they can raise their families and balance their personal lives as they earn. Your future depends on the quality of your connections. If you are ready to rub shoulders with other women entrepreneurs who can help you expand into new countries and cultures, take this opportunity to attend GWEN--Global Women's Entrepreneur Network.

Here is the schedule:

October 31st –evening Halloween Party (optional). You can also invite your man to join us for this light-hearted celebration, beginning at 9:00 PM.

November 1st –We meet at 6:00 PM to mingle and socialize. The evening presentation begins at 7:00 PM.

November 2-4 –GWEN officially begins each day at 3:00 PM. We will share our stories and skills until 6:00 PM. There will be a dinner break before the evening session, which begins at 7:30. Your mornings are free for sightseeing. Or you can use them to provide or to attend free classes in Yoga, Singing, Dance, or a variety of free business courses to help you find your true calling, improve your business skills, and learn the steps for growing your business.

November 5th –The last day is an optional business fair (Messe) in which the GWEN participants can either speak or present their services in small break out groups. These events will go on all day. Please let us know if you plan to make a presentation so we can provide a room and a time slot that fits for you.
