

Heaven on Earth

GWEN Global

Carly Smith and Jasmine Buehler just completed another GWEN 1-Day training. The women who attended the Global Women's Entrepreneurship Network were thrilled. The trainers were joyous. The GWEN method of starting up pilot projects as seeds for new businesses is taking the world by storm.

But don't think that free agent entrepreneurship is just for women. GMEN meetings are cropping up wherever gentlemen gather to assist women owned businesses and to launch a few projects of their own.

The popularity of the GWEN road trips indicates a sea change in the way that women are playing the business game. Instead of floundering in closed corporate circles or competing with other women in ordinary networking meetings, more women are building cooperative business communities. Experienced businesswomen share their knowledge and skills freely by mentoring energetic new players. Just as women put their families before themselves at home, they are learning to bring that nurturing quality into business, where they find loving friendships that last a lifetime.

It seems as if the entire Sage University team is on tour. This is the season for tropical locations and exotic trainings. If you like big cities on the sea, join us for GWEN Honolulu, December 3-7, and maybe stay over for Geisha School the following weekend.

For those who love Thailand, we invite you to join us there in February. We will be learning more Thai massage in Bangkok before moving on to a small island for The Feminine Community.

The ultimate, of course, is Bora Bora, where you can join us in May. There is no more lovely location on Earth to explore the ancient arts of a woman and restore the sweet kindness that is the feminine essence. Don't let life make you hard and cold. Clear your mind and refresh your heart with us in paradise.

Hawaii on my Mind

This holiday season is something special. The road team will be returning to Europe just in time for a spate of festive celebrations. All those travellers will be returning with the glow of their adventures, just as the holidays begin to swing.

Hamburg offers the Krazy Kristmas Party on December 20th. Forget about Tannenbäume, gifts, and all the rest. You can show up elegant, casual, or even reuse your Halloween costume to delight your fellow party mongers. The secret of a happy life is celebration. The holidays remind us to take it easy and to enjoy the good people in our lives.

Gift giving is a wonderful tradition. More important is the spirit of giving throughout the year. Generosity creates a spirit of giving in every arena of your life.

Coaching Training

In the emerging service economy people are discovering the importance of people skills to grow their small businesses. We welcome you to check the calendar for events that will upgrade your ability to protect and serve your clients.

The most easy, cost effective way to improve your coaching and training skills is to participate in our online events. A new 8-week series of Coach Me If You Can begins in January. Here you get to practice your people skills on our training team so that you can make your mistakes and learn new skills with good friends who can offer the feedback you need to take your game to the next level. E-mail early to secure your place.

Greetings from Mia Sage

My favorite part of business is travelling around to lend support to all of the free agent entrepreneurs who participate in the GWEN network. The excitement of discovering new places and meeting new people lifts my spirits. I look forward to meeting many of you this winter—perhaps in Thailand or Bora Bora.

Our mission is to assist free agents entrepreneurs. As the job economy dissolves, we understand the importance of a new spirit of cooperation between people who have to find new ways to provide for their families. Next year we will expand into new areas in search of the kind of people who understand the importance of having an effective business community.

If you are interested in growing your own business, be sure to download The New Entrepreneurship in English or Das Neue Unternehmertum in German from Amazon. That very small investment will provide you with a clear, simple manual to help you avoid the mistakes that can sink a business. If you follow your heart and follow the rules of honest business you will eventually create the security you desire.

Acknowledgements

It is a pleasure for us to watch coaches, trainers, and entrepreneurs grow. Dr. Carly Smith was pretty amazed by the beneficial impact of her training skills at GWEN. Justin Case is also winning raving fans in his tours. People who have taken his courses extol his ability to bring fun and ease to the training game.

Siva is travelling about, winning new clients and preparing for her first global tour. Her training was extremely rigorous, but she came through with flying colors.

Nearly all entrepreneurs enter the game filled with suspicion and old habits left over from their early business experiences. We specialize in helping you face down your anxieties so you can succeed as a free agent.

GWEN Honolulu

(December 3-7)

As women entrepreneurs, we grow our enterprises through close friendships. GWEN is a global women entrepreneur network for women who realize that building trust is essential to earning a living.

Melissa Hendricks is hosting GWEN in her hometown—Honolulu. We invite you to join us in Waikiki for business and pleasure. Here you will bask in the warm Hawaii sun and in the love of other kind, generous women, all devoted to growing our businesses together.

Email info@sageuniversity.com to learn more about this unique, feminine approach to living your dream.

Geisha School

(Honolulu, December 11-14)

You become the story you tell. Geisha school is a salon for women who want to gain prestige and honor by learning how to create conversations that lift them to a new place in their lives. Chatter and gossip slip into our lives unnoticed. We speak ill of others without realizing the damage we do to ourselves. Few women ever master the discipline of filtering what they hear and how they represent themselves.

The authentic Geishas of Japan live lives equivalent to Western supermodels. They are wealthy celebrities. But their high station doesn't depend on their age or on their looks. These lovely women speak with honor and humor. They win the trust of powerful men and women. They are revered because they are trustworthy. You can learn to see and be seen that way. Join us in Hawaii to master the feminine art of wisdom.

The Turning Point

(Hamburg, December 28-31)

The New Year is upon us. Did 2014 fulfill your expectations? Are there new challenges for you to take on? Do you have the step-by-step plan to make sure that you find happiness and prosperity in 2015?

The Turning Point is coming to Hamburg right after Christmas. This is a big opportunity—a profound time of inspiration, blended with practical actions to find the fulfillment you seek.

Our training team is thrilled to bring this major event to Germany. Justin Case will participate in the seminar and assist with his unique brand of fun and high-energy excitement.

The tuition is low. The quality is high—very high. Join us for the training and the Sylvester party for 2015.

Self-Actualization

(Ibiza, January 02-08)

We all live two lives. One consists of the important roles we play—mother, father, brother, friend, and career professional. The other is that deep, serene presence that has traveled with our species from the dawn of time.

Your roles are essential. Your actual self is profoundly more so. Your inner wisdom is enjoined with your sexuality, mating, and survival. The better you know your true nature, the greater your power to live a fulfilling life.

Two people are looking through your eyes. One is you and the other is the silent witness that feels only joy and profound love. Self-Actualization is 7 days of exploration beyond your body, brain, and personality. Spend a few days with us on Ibiza to meet the real you.

Beauty, Health & Fitness

A Feminine Journey

(February 2015)

Your greatest challenge is to live your life to the fullest. Your inner beauty longs to come out so that you can live your life with the confidence and vitality you enjoyed before you conformed to the ideas and expectations of society.

As a young girl you danced with wild abandon and spoke your mind with no concern what others might think. That freedom gave beauty and grace to your movements and filled your heart with joy. That freedom faded under the burden of work and worry.

If you intend to recover your beautiful, innocent nature, this is the time. Beauty, Health, and Fitness is the event. Ibiza is the place. And we are the dream team—the friends who see your loving nature.

Together we will prepare delicious meals, create beautiful music, walk in nature, and dance the ancient way—the way of the woman. If you want a dancer's body, you must dance. If you want a gourmet lifestyle, you must learn the art of cuisine. If you want the confidence of a model, you will have to come out. Among friends like these your face will transform. Your senses will come alive. You will tune in the inner rhythm that loving women share when they are free from the demands of a culture dominated by Yang, male values.

Forget about feminism and passive aggressive tactics. Fighting only makes you hard and bitter. Authentic femininity is as soft as a baby and as radiant as true love. This 28-day experience creates a field of loving, nurturing kindness, the kind that a newborn baby shares with her mother in those first months of life, before expectations squelch our natural radiance.

You will emerge from this retreat with an entirely new perspective and with communication skills that you can use to create the career that springs from your true gifts and talents. It is time to do something for you for a change. Call or connect to learn more.

This is a big commitment. When you give your word, heaven and earth will move to help you find your way. We are here to assist you.
