

Love & Money

Mia Sage didn't invent a new software program or launch a web formant like Facebook or Google. All she has managed to create is a revolutionary model for mating, relationship, and partnership. By following her own desire for adventure and profound harmony, she has created a game that you play in your bedroom, bathroom, boardroom, and in all the arenas you share with an intimate partner.

Now you can learn to play the Love & Money game by joining us for a few hours each Monday to learn the rules for the most important game you will ever play.

Great relationships bring joy, love, intimacy, security, playfulness and fulfillment. While ordinary coupling requires elements of drama (trauma), conflict, and pain, her model lifts you directly out from the swamp of sorrows and the valley of regret so that you can get right to the good part. Why not live the love that you want to pass along to your children and your children's children.

Like any game, Love & Money has rules designed to enhance the fun and special skills that you can practice to become the lover, friend, and true companion you have always admired. Sign up quick—we are starting tomorrow. See you in the realm of marital bliss.

ZOOM-BAH

Holy smoke! Now you can attend courses and seminars online with Sage in which you share the screen with all of the beautiful faces of your classmates. There is nothing like being in the same room, soaking up all those good vibrations with people who love and cherish you. But this new format is the closest, warmest experience you can share without leaving home, driving to the airport, and booking a hotel.

When you can view the facial transformations and expressions of discovery with your classmates, you feel waves of excitement by seeing how your friends and associates respond to your achievements. Take an Online course with us as soon as possible to experience the latest, greatest advance yet in online training.

Communicate Your Love

Communication is more than words. When you really communicate with another person you transform the field of vibration between you. You connect with the love and respect that you truly want to share.

When you fall into doubt or anxiety with someone you care about, the cost is terrible. Misunderstanding hurts the people involved, and it harms everyone else in their web of friendships.

Other schools teach facts and figures, which are valuable for specific professions. With Sage you take it higher by mastering the dynamics of human systems. The Sage University curriculum shows how to expand love and earn money together for a fully satisfying life.

Corporate Training

Is it synchronicity when two different Sage Teams on two continents land corporate contracts with separate glamor and beauty companies? Has our approach to communication become an idea whose time has come?

We pioneered the Sage Method in 1980, back when “soft” skills were considered frilly compared with manufacturing and management techniques. Almost four decades later it seems that big business has realized that business exists to serve human beings.

Peter Drucker famously stated that an innovation takes 2 generations (40 years) to gain wide acceptance. Well, we have withstood the test of time. Now our human centered approach to business has taken its place in the mainstream. Now it is your turn to share your skills with big companies.

Practice Building

If you are earning as much as you desire from coaching, training, and consulting, then you deserve hearty congratulations. If your practice could be doing better, you can take it there by purchasing our new Toolkits for private practitioners.

The Sage Film Team has been very busy, churning out new video training to make your life better and to provide the tools you need to bring value to the people you serve.

Selling from the Heart enables you to acquire new clients that fit with your approach. The Private Coaching Session Toolkit shows you how to open expanded dimensions of perception so that your private sessions sizzle with aliveness.

You can download these new kits from the Sage University Website: <http://www.sageuniversity.eu/products/toolkits.html>.

Grow your practice bigger to serve your clients better. Discover the universal rhythm of the interview process like a great musician so that you can perform your craft in your own style.

Beverly D

Do not stand by my grave and weep. I am not there. I do not sleep. These words from a native American tradition perfectly express the spirit of our dear friend Beverly D. She has shed her body to expand into a larger perspective. All of her friends have stories to tell, of the joy she brought to their lives. All of us feel her with us now more than ever. Her music and laughter rings in our ears.

A wise friend commented that we are all walking down that road. This life is but a brief intermission in an infinite journey that we all share. One day soon we gather in light and love.

What to Do with Your Life Online (May 21.-22.)

Whatever you love, somebody is making a living doing that very thing. You can learn to earn your living by living your dream.

What to Do With the Rest of Your Life is a two-day coaching experience that will assist you to find the pieces of your life puzzle and then put them together to design the career and lifestyle that fits you. As jobs disappear, you will be one of the fortunate people who has the tools to build your own future.

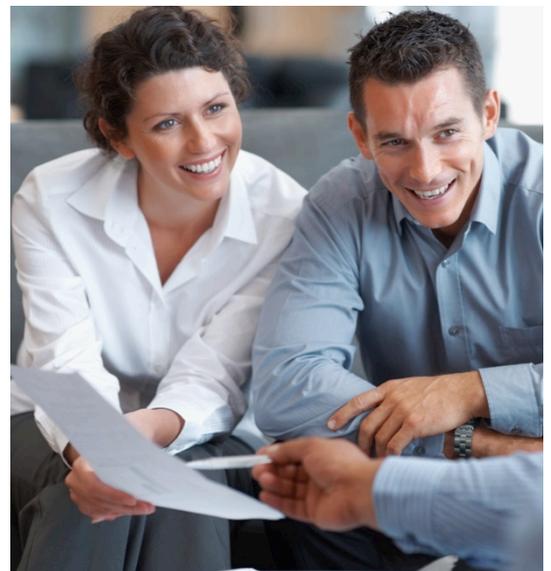

Here is where you will find the courage to listen to your own wisdom and to make choices you won't regret when you reflect back on your life.

The Art of Closing the Sale (June 01.-06.)

You can double your income instantly by improving your ability to close sales. We can show you how. Invest a few days and a few hundred bucks to learn how to get out of people's way so that more folks will hand you cash, give you their credit card numbers, write you a check, or transfer money into your account.

Most people keep doing the same things over and over while expecting a different outcome. If you miss this course, then you will face more years of rejection and restricted cash flow.

The better you sell, the more you will earn over your lifetime. Embrace prosperity by mastering the professional language of moving money. Call us to make your commitment to a thriving business and a prosperous lifestyle.

Leadership: The Sage Interview (July 01.-05.)

In order to lead people you have to understand them. Business leaders achieve positions of responsibility by knowing their business. They grow their companies by developing deep knowledge of human nature.

The interview process blends palpable respect with appreciative feedback. By practicing dialogue, conversation, and appreciative inquiry, leaders can increase their effectiveness in collaborating with the people that work together to achieve the goals of the organization.

Effective interviewing skills enable you to recruit, train, and coordinate people by transforming individuals into teammates. This is a Master's level course for those who have the responsibility to get results by developing others. Join us on Ibiza in July to take your leadership skills to the next level.

Advanced People Reading (July 06.-10.)

Highly successful people do one thing better than you. They read people accurately. When you see people as they really are, superior perceptiveness reveals the talent and the intention of folks that will help or hinder your way in life.

Most people face constant barriers and fight destructive interpersonal battles because they navigate through life with only vague, disturbing "feelings" to guide them. Few have the distinctive observation skills they need to sort things out accurately.

Successful leaders develop extraordinary powers of observation. They assess facial expressions and subtle movements efficiently and effectively. More importantly, they combine deductive and inductive reasoning to put their observations into perspective.

If you recognize the value of reading human intent, you will love this foray into the science of human interactions. Here are the higher order skills you need to move beyond your habitual view and to gain the vantage point you need to play a bigger game.

Time & Money (Aug. 02.-07.)

Life is an exciting adventure for those who earn a living doing what they love. Our team will assist you to design and build a career and lifestyle that makes you feel vibrant and alive.

Few people achieve the success they desire. They don't plan to fail. They just fail to plan. So they lack clear direction. Without a plan that fits, too many people work too hard at the wrong thing. They labor at jobs to produce money for other people. They drift through life with little chance of achieving prosperity.

Fortunately you can learn to discover your passion and to set goals that will bring about the life you desire. Goal setting alone isn't enough. In this course you will write out a thorough design for your career and lifestyle based on feedback that lets you know what activities make you feel more alive.

By the end of this business seminar, you will know the specific actions that will shift you into the life you were meant to live. Most people talk about what they will do. This is a course for people who intend to really do the things they talk about.
